

Requirements for participants in the double degree programme with Master in International Relations, Charles University, Prague

Valid as of 2023

Year 1 (University of Konstanz)

Requirements given by the University of Konstanz curriculum.

Year 2 (Charles University)

Prospective students are advised to consult in detail the programme description and outline at the Charles University website at <https://fsv.cuni.cz/en/admissions/masters-degrees/master-international-relations-main>. The Student Prospectus gives the list of the key modules in the programme.

The table below lists the compulsory modules from which the double degree students select to fulfill the study requirements. They are free to choose all the courses in the table, or any other electives, but the table specifies the minimum requirements.

Semester/ Credits	Credits	Modules
1. Semester	6+4	Theories of International Relations & Seminar
26 ECTS	6+4	Approaches to Conflicts and Violence & Seminar
	6	Global Political Economy
2. Semester	6+4	International Institutions & Seminar
26 ECTS	6	International Law
	6+4	European Union & Seminar
Total required courses	At least 24+8	At least 4 of the compulsory main (lecture) modules and two accompanying seminars. Students choose courses to match their state exam choice of one from European Union, International Institutions, International Economic Relations/Global Political Economy, or International Law.
MA thesis seminar I and II	18	Jointly supervised MA thesis
Total	In total 120 ECTS credits, including at least 50 (32+18) as specified above	